

This photograph, taken recently at Cherbourg, France, shows the finish of a number of German U-boats. These submarines, designed to prey on enemy commerce, are being broken up for junk and their metal converted to peaceful uses.
Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., photographed on the beach at Southampton, L. I.
Underwood & Underwood.

The three-year-old daughter of an English farmer, who helps her father by giving the horses their hay.
Edwin Levick.

Cat, terrier and fox cub dwell in amity on a farm near Reading, England. Pussy, however, does not seem to enjoy being photographed.
Edwin Levick.

Miss Margaret Reick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Reick, whose engagement to Henry Schermerhorn Stearns was recently announced.
W. Burden Stage.

Major-Gen. John L. Chamberlain, inspector general of the army, who is to make a tour of observation abroad.
Copyright, Clinedinst.

Scene outside a public house in Ireland in which the patrons of the bar were lined up to be searched for weapons. This photograph was taken just before the truce.
Central News.